Racism in Ireland

January-June 2017

reports of racist incidents

more reports than in the previous period

WHAT HAPPENED

CRIMES

Other hate

13 Threats to cause harm

13 Damages 31 Threats

Incidents such as verbal abuse, 'racist jokes'

accompany or precede the types of incidents

or aggressive questioning; frequently addressed by law, however, are neither addressed by criminal law nor the laws on

SUB-CRIMES

discrimination.

Access to goods and

HATE SPEECH

Online

in the workplace

newspapers

TARGETED RACIALISED

GROUPS

31

/ICTIMS

Black people

13 People of

mixed ethnic

20

South Asians

background

Muslims

GENDER

Irish Travellers, White Non-European, and White Irish (because of incl. White European,

53

White people

association with ethnic minorities or foreign nationals)

Men experienced

significantly more

abuse and

discrimination

than women.

People in the age group '25-34' were the most 25-34 likely (43%) of any group to be targeted in this period, followed by those aged '18-25' and aged '35-44' (23% each).

perpetrators of violence, abuse and discrimination in accessing goods and services. Racist language was used in 40% of crimes and 36% of other incidents.

Government

Strangers were

PERPETRATORS Males were perpetrators of more than half of all perpetrators of crime and of sub-crime incidents. They outnumbered female perpetrators of three to one.

be acting alone.

crimes were most likely to discrimination in the ratio of Perpetrators of racist

Report racism. Don't ignore it. Report racism on www.iReport.ie

For detailed data check 'Reports of Racism in Ireland: 15th & 16th Quarterly Reports of iReport.ie. January - June 2017'

